WASHINGTON CITY PRESBYTERY. The Business Seesion of the Regular Spring

REV. MR. CRAIGHEAD CHOSEN MODERATOR—MAN REPORTS READ SHOWING THE CONDITION OF AFFAIRS -- RESOLUTIONS OFFERED AND ADOPTED -THE PECK MEMORIAL CHAPEL CASE.

The Washington city presbytery was in see sion today at the Church of the Covenant. It was the regular spring meeting and the open-ing session was held last evening, when the lev. J. G. Craighead was elected moderator and Mr. Luckett temporary clerk. Rev. Sam-uel Van Vranken Holmes, the assistant pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, was received as a member of the presbytery on certificate from the presbytery of Otsego, N.Y. The session this morning was opened with religious

COMMITTEE REPORTS READ.

Attention was called by Rev. Dr. Hamlin to the anomalous position of Rev. Mr. Smith, the pastor in charge of the Peck Memorial Chapel, a mission conducted by the Church of the Covenant in Georgetown. Since Mr. Smith had been in charge of the work twenty new members had been received into the Church of the Covenant, but in the minutes of the assembly no credit would be given to Mr. Smith for his work, which had been so successful in this as well as in other respects. He thought that it was an injustice to Mr. Smith, but he was only in the same position as numbers of other young men who were in charge of mission work. There was no way of getting this work mentioned in the records of the church and Dr. Hamlin thought that some remedy should be devised to correct the injustice. He thought that it might be possible in the church roll to follow, for example, his own name with that of Mr. Smith in brackets, giving the statistics of his general assembly, yet he did not think he would dare to disregard a report from the pres-bytery. A resolution embodying the sugges-tion of Dr. Hamlin was adopted, and here-the board in the death of Judge Drake. It was recommended that M. O. Claughton be ap-pointed in his place and that Revs. Craighead, Patch and Miller be appointed to fill vacancies. The report was adopted.

REPRESENTATIVES TO THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

Perhaps the matter of business that excited the greatest interest was that which was assigned as the special order for 12 o'clock. When that hour arrived the moderator announced that the time had come to elect commissioners to represent the presbytery at the general assembly, which meets in Portland, Oreg., in May. It had been rumored that the conflict which is expected to take place in the assembly over the case of Dr. Briggs, or the higher criticism advocates would be started in a small way in the presbytery over the election of commissioners. It was said that Union Seminary or Dr. Briggs had carried on an active canvass to secure a vote in their favor. This charge was stated by Dr. Hamlin before the voting began in order that he might enter an emphatic denial. BEPRESENTATIVES TO THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

DR. BARTLETT NOMINATED. When nominations for clerical delegate were called for Rev. Dr. Bittinger nomiremarks explaining why Dr. Bartlett should represent the presbytery at this time. He said that there were two questions likely to come before the assembly of great importance. On both the presbytery had taken action and Dr. Bartlett represented the majority on both questions. He had voted with a majority of the presbytery in favor of the revision of the confession of faith, and as to the controversy between Union Seminary and the assembly the presbytery had voted with the latter and Dr. Bartlett was in sympathy with that side. While he had gone to the last assembly very many control of the last assembly very likely to come before the assembly the presbytery had taken granted the Commissioners certify

While he had gone to the last assembly, yet in the opinion of Dr. Bittinger he could represent the presbytery at this particular time in a very acceptable man-

The nomination was seconded by Rev. Dr. Chester, who also made a speech. Rev. Mr. Little then placed in nomination the name of Rev. Dr. Hamlin, with a few remarks as to the esirability of electing him.

DR. HAMLIN WITHDRAWS BIS NAME. This nomination brought Dr. Hamlin to his without consultation and while he appreciated without consultation and while he appreciated the honor yet he would be obliged to ask to withdrawhis name for the simple reason that he could not represent a majority of the presbytery on one of the questions at issue, as the members knew he had voted with the majority on revision, and could represent the presbytery in that particular. But he did not agree with the majority action relative to the Union Seminary. As was well known, he took the side of the seminary in that controversy, and, as the majority of the presbytery stood by the assembly, he could not represent the will of the presbytery.

DR. BARTLETT ELECTED.

His request that his name be withdrawn was ranted. The vote was taken by ballot, Rev. Dr. Bartlett being the only nominee. He was Dr. Bartlett being the only nominee. He was elected by a practically unanimous vote, there being a few scattering ballots cast for others.

Francis H. Smith was elected as the lay delegate and William Ballantyne as the alternate. The election of the clerical alternates was deferred until the afternoon session. About 1 o'clock the presbytery took a recess for luncheon, which was provided by the ladies of the Covenant congregation, at the residence of Mrs. Thomas Wilson.
